

to expand your clinical vision...

MRI's new subsecond spiral CT scanner provides superior quality in substantially less time. Faster scans mean your patients will be more comfortable.

Using a patented HiLight Detector, MRI's new spiral CT scanner provides remarkable three-dimensional presentations of bones, vascular structures, and selected soft tissue.

Interfacing with the independent physician console permits three-dimensional multiplanar manipulation.

We provide you with Polaroid copies that fit easily into your patient record.