

It's time for you to check out, Nibbler!

MatMan takes a bite out of the Nibbler's grime wave

After closing hours, the Nibbler scurries through the darkness of the business district to partake of his favorite meal - the tender corners of rugs, carpeting and worn floor mats. MatMan sets a foolproof trap for the mischievous masticator. He protects high-traffic areas with durable, high quality mats, then replaces them frequently to frustrate his ferocious foe's fangs.
